

PSG BOWDENS CASE STUDY

ABOUT PSG BOWDENS

PSG Bowdens was founded in 2019 specialising in providing a bespoke, efficient and proactive tax and accounting service to SME's, individuals and Trusts across Worcestershire, Gloucestershire and the West Midlands.

THE BUSINESS CHALLENGES

PSG Bowdens faced the daunting task of relocating their office premises to an old farm outbuilding which required a complete overhaul and modernisation throughout. The move needed to be executed smoothly to minimise business downtime and ensure continuous support to their valued clients. Additionally, PSG Bowdens sought to establish a long-term relationship with a supplier who could understand their unique needs and provide proactive solutions.

WHY PSG BOWDENS CHOSE DELTA 365

Having established a solid partnership through the Sterling Networking Group, PSG Bowdens trusted Delta 365 to handle their IT and telecoms needs during the office transition. With a deep understanding of PSG Bowdens objectives and a commitment to minimising downtime, Delta 365 emerged as the preferred choice. Partners, Tania Jones, Ginny Getting and Katie Frost, recognised Delta 365's expertise and responsiveness, making them confident in entrusting their crucial IT infrastructure to the team.

HOW DELTA 365 RESPONDED

Delta 365 responded to PSG Bowdens challenges with a comprehensive suite of services tailored to their specific requirements. Delta 365 provided expert guidance and support throughout the planning and execution phases of the office move. From broadband connectivity to cloud server support, Delta 365 ensured a seamless transition, enabling PSG Bowdens to focus on their business goals without disruptions.
